

UBM specializes in the development and implementation of an investment projects in the different sectors of the building materials market:

- Glass industry
- Ceramic production
- Industrial minerals
- Wall materials
- Extraction of raw materials

Partnership

UBM offers various kinds of partnerships depending on partners strategy and project features. Our priority is the establishment of long-term mutually advantageous relations.

Responsibilities

UBM assumes the responsibility for risks connected with implementation of projects

Investment process

Through asset allocation, asset class structuring and management, UBM seeks to add value both in absolute and risk-adjusted terms relative to each client's long-term investment policy.